POPOOLVILLE, The Congo, 18 (UPI)—Mounting criticism by Congolese political leaders threatened Army Col. Joseph Mobutu's "strongman" role of this seething African state.

A new controversy boiled up over Mobutu's apparent reluctance to force a showdown with Premier Patrice Lumumba yesterday announced and changed his mind about Parliament back into session and reiterated his decision to "neutralize" the legislative and all political parties unopposed at the end of the year.

An announcement followed a day later by Mobutu to Elisabethville talks with President Mobutu and the anti-Lumumba forces. The two apparently desire the anti-Lumumba forces. Parliament were not yet enough to formally vote on the matter.

MOBUTU'S announcement of a constitutional amendment that would have had Parliament back into session this week, has been hoped that Mobutu had enough to topple Lumumba, lift his parliamentary immunity so he could be arrested, formally invest Joseph Ilkemi.

President Joseph Kasavubu dismissed Lumumba and Ilkemi to succeed him. Mobutu stepped into the political struggle and seized control of the Congo last month.

Discussing National Election . . .

Childs Calls Peace Supreme Issue

The supreme issue of the day is peace without surrender said Marquis W. Childs, famed Washington political columnist and world traveling companion of President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the Monday forum at Brigham Young University.

In pointing to the issues on which the election campaigns are moving, Childs said that both candidates were aware of the hair-line margins of security under which people live and that both candidates are aware of the ease with which a war of mammoth holocaustic proportions might be triggered by some inadvertency.

"KENNEDY WILL WIN," was the opinion of Childs, citing the great preponderance of Democratic voters registered throughout the United States, as indicated in a recent Gallup poll.

Also, two-thirds of the state governments are Democratic, and the great majority of large-city governments are made up from the ranks of the Democratic party, he stated.

In decrying the "religion spectre" which has moved into the election proceedings, Mr. Childs pointed out that there is a swing toward Democratic Party affiliations among the Catholics.

IN SPEAKING of national elections, Childs said that the major problem of both presidential candidates is "the difficulty of getting the attention of the American public."

He used the story of a man hitting his donkey over the head to get its attention as an illustration.

Childs told the studentbody that the presidential campaigning period was far too long; four or five weeks would be sufficient, he added.

HE DESCRIBED the central task of either candidate after taking office next January as being that of trying to resume negotiations. "The task is made doubly difficult through the nature of the man with whom the negotiations must be re-established."

Childs described that man as "the ill-natured, ill-mannered man who has been harranguing the United Nations during past weeks with a debasement never before equalled by any leader of any major power."

Child's "Washington Calling column is syndicated to more than 150 leading newspapers throughout the United States and Canada. One of his books, "Eisenhower: Captive Hero," became a best-seller.

French Bill Sets Forth Atomic Plan

PARIS, Oct. 18 (UPI)—The French National Assembly today opens a marathon 25-hour debate on President Charles De Gaulle's controversial plan for an independent nuclear striking force for France.

The government, facing its first major test of strength with a rebellious parliament, is asking permission to spend approximately $2.4 billion during the next five years on equipping and modernizing France's armed forces.

ABOUT ONE-HALF of this is earmarked for a nuclear striking force equipped with French-built atomic bombers, rockets, nuclear bombs and warheads, even though he strikes French fighting warships and submarines.

In a government statement introducing the bill to the assembly last Thursday, Premier Michel Debre criticized America's "nuclear monopoly" and indicated France hoped to win a bigger share in Atlantic Alliance strategy once it possesses its own nuclear striking force.

OTHER FRENCH officials said DeGaulle's ultimate goal is to put France on an equal footing with Britain in the Atlantic Alliance, even though he realizes his country has no chance of matching the atomic might of the United States.

They added that France has no thought of trying to take on the Soviet Union alone in a nuclear showdown. But they claimed that a French nuclear striking force, or a "force of dissuade" as the government recently dubbed it, would act as a deterrent against an attack on France and also would boost the power of NATO.

THE BILL has been sharply assailed by the Communists, Socialists, parts of the radicals and independents and by the extreme right. The only solid support comes from the Gaullist Union for the New Republic (UNR) which controls about one-third of the assembly's 470 seats.

Bishop Carl W. Buehner . . . to address devotional audience.

Cats Prepare for MSU

A strong mid-season comeback will be the goal of BYU's football force this weekend when they journey to Missoula to battle the league's Johnny-come-lately, Montana State.

SATURDAY the Cougars suffered an agonizing 31-0 loss to a strong, steady Arizona State football team. It was the Y's second straight shutout loss and left them with a limp, unimpressive 1-2 record.

"ASU was by far the best team we've met this season," offered head coach Tully Stevens in his Monday morning summation. "At our best—and I must admit we were flat for this one—we would have had a mighty tough time beating a team like Arizona State."

The game, which was played before a long-faced Homecoming crowd, was as lop-sided as the score might indicate. With the game only seven minutes old the Cats trailed 14-0, and the outcome was never in doubt thereafter.

Despite the Sun Devil steamroller attack, the Cougars managed to come out of the contest without any injuries of consequence. This means they should be close to full strength for the Grizzlies.

LOOKING ahead to Saturday's game with Montana, the Cougars see little relief in sight. The Grizzlies, although not among the current Skyline contenders, have recent victims in Idaho and Denver. At the mid-season mark they have an enviable 3-2 record.

Then, too the Cougars can't forget the humiliating 13-0 defeat Montana handed them last year in Provo. It was this upset that started the Cougars down hill in 1959.

In the afternoon practice sessions between now and departure time Friday, the Cougars hope to sharpen up their offensive game. Last Saturday the Cats' best offensive weapon was the penalty. They picked up 77 yards on penalties as compared to 59 yards rushing and 63 yards passing. The Cougars have not scored a touchdown since their 8-7 loss to CSU three weeks ago.

AT THE moment the Cougars are still a bit skittish about their passing game. The second TD scored by ASU came off a pass interception in the first quarter.

Only minor changes, if any, are expected in the BYU lineup this weekend. Five sophomores will be among the starters at Dornblaser Field at the 1:30 p.m. kickoff.

Florence Quits Channel; Farewell Attempt Foiled

PORTPATRICK, Scotland, Oct. 16 (UPI)—American Florence Chadwick today gave up channel swimming and in sporting tradition said, "If you can't accept defeat, you have no business in sports."

The four-time conqueror of the English Channel yesterday failed to swim the choppy 21 mile North Channel between northern Ireland and Scotland. She managed to swim 14 miles before being pulled out of the water cold and exhausted.

"I'm terribly disappointed that my farewell attempt was not more successful, but I am pleased that I at least gave it a try," she said.

"I imagine I'll always be connected with aquatics in one way or another, but there will be no more long trials."

"I was never in better condition," said Miss Chadwick, "after the first six hours in the water. I'd have had a million dollars I would make it. It was in the last 40 minutes that the cold began to take its toll. It was getting foggy. I tried to shake it off but could not. By the time I quit, I was just about to blow it. I was just about to blow it. I was just about to blow it."
